

PRESS RELEASE

Walt Porter Joins MBS as Director of Managed Services

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 17, 2007—Managed Business Solutions, a global information and technology outsourcing and consulting firm and a certified diversity supplier with offices in Colorado Springs and Ft. Collins, announced that Walt Porter has joined the company as Director of Managed Service.

Porter has more than 25 years of related experience in the information technology industry. He spent more than 20 years with MCI/Worldcom, where he held several management positions and served as the corporate representative for all community involvement programs including the NAACP, Urban League, INROADS and Junior Achievement. He comes to MBS from Spherion Technologies, a major staffing/outsourcing firm, where he was responsible for managing multinational operations including Asia Pacific and Europe.

“We are delighted that Walt has joined MBS,” said Richard Noe, MBS CEO. “His business acumen, technical expertise and leadership capabilities will have a strong positive impact in our growth and profitability. Walt’s hiring will prove extremely valuable as we begin to market an expansion of our offerings in the Managed Services Arena.

In his current position at MBS, Porter’s primary responsibility is to develop and implement a cohesive Managed Services Business Unit that will take advantage of MBS’ core competencies and expand capabilities in the IT market place. Additionally, he will also be a key contributor in MBS’ Supplier Diversity initiative, and will be a member of the MBS executive team.
